E' insinghiero sapere che
Dear Mr. Mondadori:
I was very pleased to have your letter of November 26, and to know that you concur with me in regard to a sequel to "Gone With the Wind" in the Italian language. It is gratifying to know that I have the cooperation of the Italian publisher of my wife's novel in this matter. Since hearing from you, I have received another letter from Miss Elena Pascarelli, of Rome, the lady who wished to write a sequel to "Gone With the Wind". I have therefore found it necessary to write to her again, strengthening my refusal of permission for her sequel. A copy of my letter of December 10 to her is enclosed herewith for your information.

My best wishes to you for the Christmas Season and the coming New Year.
